

IL SUONAR PARLANTE ORCHESTRA was founded in 2007 by Vittorio Ghielmi and the argentinian singer Graciela Gilbelli: it has been orchestra in residence for the 46th "Semana de Musica Religiosa de Cuenca", Madrid, where, accompanied by the Swedish choir "Rilke ensembles" (G.Eriksson) has been protagonist of the world première of a big spectacle around Buxtehude's "Membra Jesu Nostri", with the american movie maker Marc Reshovsky (Hollywood). Since then the orchestra, in different settings, has been regularly invited in the most important Halls all over the world (Berliner Philharmonie, Salzburg Festspiele, Auditorium Nacional Madrid...). It has "orchestra in residence" in Stuttgart Festspiele 2010, in Segovia music festival 2011, in Bozar music festival Brussels. The cd "Barbarian Beauty"("Barbarische Schönheit"), dedicated to the concerto for viola da gamba and orchestra (J.G.Graun, Telemann, Tartini), with the Moldavian cymbalon virtuoso Marcel Comendant has appeared for "Passacaille" winning many critic prizes. The cd "The Passion of Musick", with Dorothee Oberlinger, appeared for Sony Deutsche Harmonia Mundi, winning the Echo Klassik Preis 2015. The new "Gypsies Baroque" album with Stano Palúch (violin) is in preparation.
